CALL FOR TUTORIALS

15th IEEE International Conference on e-Health Networking, Application & Services (IEEE HEALTHCOM 2013)

Lisbon, Portugal – October 09-12, 2013

http://www.ieee-healthcom.org

OVERVIEW

IEEE Healthcom 2013 invites proposals for tutorials to be held in Lisbon, Portugal from 9 to12 October 2013. The tutorials should be either half or full-day. The tutorial topic should enjoy broad interest within the community. The topic can be an established or emerging research topic within the field of eHealth, but also from a related research field or about an interesting application area. The proposed topic should be broad enough to provide a gentle introduction to the research area, but it should also cover the most important contributions in depth.

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION

To propose a tutorial for IEEE Healthcom2013, please send an email to sasilva@dei.uc.pt and jcn@dsi.uminho.pt by April 30, 2013 containing:

1. Tutorial title and abstract
2. Lecturers' names, addresses, emails and short CVs
3. A course description in syllabus form
4. Target audience
5. Length of tutorial: half or full-day
